SUMMARY OF AWARDS

The OEA gives the following awards in the area of Human and Civil rights: Kate Frank Award, Tuskahoma Brown Miller Award, F.D. Moon Award and the Glenn Snider Human Relations Award. Other awards include the OEA Friend of Education, the Claude A. Dyer Memorial Award, the Stan Bryant Political Action Award, the Education Support Professional Award, Advocate for Academic Freedom Award and the Collective Bargaining Awards. There are two Instructional Excellence in Education Awards. One award is presented for Excellence in the Classroom and the other is for Teachers Teaching Teachers. In the Communications area a number of Marshall Gregory Awards are given to student and professional media for quality presentations in the field of education. Communication excellence by local organizations is honored with the Golden Apple Award.

Applications are available October 1st and are due to the OEA headquarters by 5 p.m., January 19, 2018. The awards will be presented during the annual OEA Delegate Assembly in April.

NEA awards include Friend of Education Award, Human and Civil Rights Awards, Student Teaching Competition and Awards for the Advancement of Learning Through Broadcasting.

Additional information and application/nomination forms can be obtained from OEA, NEA or at okea.org.

All awards given by OEA are subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

QUALIFICATIONS:

The OEA Friend of Education Award may be bestowed upon any person who, through leadership, acts, and support on the state or national level, has proven to be a true friend of education, educators, or students. The recipient need not be an OEA member, but he or she should reflect the philosophy and principles of OEA/NEA. Nominees may be public officials or private citizens, and selection of finalists will be made regardless of age, sex, race, color, or creed. If a nominee is eligible for OEA membership, such membership is a requirement.

NOMINATIONS:

Any member of the Oklahoma Education Association or a local Association may nominate a recipient by completing a nomination form which can be obtained from the OEA Headquarters, or members of the Board of Directors.

SELECTION OF FINALISTS:

The Internal Concerns Committee of the OEA Board of Directors shall review each nomination. The Committee shall submit its recommendation for the award to the Board of Directors for approval.

THE AWARD:

The Friend of Education Award shall be presented by the President of the OEA or the President's designee during the annual OEA Delegate Assembly, in a ceremony designed to place emphasis on the importance of the award.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING NOMINATIONS:

Nominations must be submitted in accordance with the timelines for OEA Awards. Nominations should be mailed to Oklahoma Education Association, Office of the President, P.O. Box 18485, Oklahoma City, OK 73154. Requests for additional nomination forms may be obtained from the same address.

MARSHALL GREGORY AWARDS

DEFINITION

The Marshall Gregory Awards recognize professional and high school student reporters and broadcasters and their newspapers, websites, radio and television stations for excellence in accurate, positive coverage of public schools, education issues, the education process and/or the Oklahoma Education Association.

WHO SHOULD ENTER

- Professional journalists at Oklahoma media outlets who are covering education events or issues that affect teachers and students in Oklahoma public schools.
- High school students who are writing, editing, producing or photographing education events or issues for their high school publications, television or radio programs, or as freelance writers/producers for professional media outlets.

Awards will be presented to the person who writes the story, shoots the pictures or edits the publication, as is appropriate for the category entered. Media outlets may be the recipients of awards for a series of articles or programs, but not for individual stories or photos. Student awards are presented to the students who produce the work, not their publication or program advisors or sponsors.

ENTRY CRITERIA

Winning entries will have focused on positive coverage of public education, the education process or a specific education event or issue. (Note to student entries: The Marshall Gregory Awards program is not a general journalism contest. Your entries must cover education issues, events or the education process. Those entries not meeting these criteria will not be judged.)

Nominees may submit only one entry per category.

Awards may be given to journalists working for print publications and websites, radio or television reporters, editors, photographers, videographers, producers or media outlets in the following categories:

News stories

Entries should fairly and accurately report a current education event or issue.

Feature stories

Entries should provide a creative, in-depth look at an education event or issue. The topic may be somewhat timeless, but could also be about a timely event or issue.

Series

Entries must include at least three stories in a series connected by topic or theme. Each printed story should each include some kind of reference to the series.

Special publication or program

Entries are one-time publications or television or radio programs that cover a particular education issue in-depth, or cover a wide variety of education issues creatively and interestingly.

Editorials

Entries are works of opinion that support, promote and/or enhance public education or a particular education event or issue.

Photography/Videography

Entries are photos or video that creatively help tell a news or feature story on an education event or issue in a printed publication or in a televised program.

Exceptional Year-Round Coverage

This category recognizes year-round examples of excellence in reporting education issues. Entries should include 4-6 stories in different issues or from different broadcasts from throughout the year that demonstrate a continuing commitment and excellence in education reporting. Awards of Excellence may be given in all media categories for year-round excellence in

- news stories,
- feature stories,
- editorials (opinion), and
- photojournalism (still or video)

Special Awards

Special awards may be given if the quality of coverage is deemed so outstanding as to warrant special recognition. Awards are given at the discretion of the Communications Committee, with approval of the OEA Board of Directors.

WORK SAMPLES

- Each entry must include a sample of the work being submitted.
- Print entries – submit a tear sheet or a photocopy of the story as it appeared in the publication.
 - Website entries – submit a printed copy of the website showing at least the first page of the article, and a typed copy, double-spaced on white paper, of the full story for judging.
 - Television entries – submit a DVD or a flash drive (8 min. or less) of the broadcast story.
 - Radio entries – submit an audio CD of the broadcast story.

ENTRY APPROVAL

All entry forms must include the signature of a president of an Oklahoma Education Association local affiliate in the media outlet's coverage area. Call OEA Headquarters at 800.522.8091 if you don't know who that might be.

ENTRY DEADLINES

All entries must have been published, broadcast, or otherwise produced and presented to the appropriate audience between January 1 and December 31 of the preceding calendar year.

Mail all entries to the following address. The entries must be received at OEA Headquarters by 5 p.m., January 19, 2018.

Marshall Gregory Awards Competition
Oklahoma Education Association
P.O. Box 18485
Oklahoma City, OK 73154

Entries hand-delivered to OEA Headquarters must arrive by 5 p.m., January 19, 2018. Send UPS and Fed EX deliveries to the 323 E. Madison, Oklahoma City, OK 73105. For direct mail, the Post Office Box is to be used.

JUDGING:

Judging will be conducted by the OEA Communications Committee. The OEA Board of Directors reserves the right of final judgment on all awards.

GOLDEN APPLE AWARDS

DEFINITION:

The Golden Apple Awards recognize OEA local Associations for their consistent efforts to provide quality communications to all of their audiences, including members and other education personnel, local school administration, parents, and the community in general.

ELIGIBILITY:

Any active local affiliate of the OEA is eligible to enter its communications efforts for judging. Emphasis in selecting recipients will be placed on consistent, quality communications produced or conducted by its members.

CRITERIA:

Entries may be sent in the following categories:

- I. Exceptional Internal Communications - This category recognizes examples of excellence in newsletters, flyers, brochures, electronic newsletters or other projects designed to communicate with members, other faculty, and/or school administration. All entries must include an original or a copy of the material distributed along with an explanation of the projects, its intent, any results it produced, and a list of members responsible for its production. Entries for periodicals (e.g. newsletters) must include at least two consecutive issues. (Broadcast entries (audio and video) must be accompanied by a DVD or flash drive and should not exceed 8 minutes in length. Longer broadcasts should be edited to fit within the time limitation. Do not submit more than the required length.)

- II. Exceptional External Communications - This category recognizes examples of excellence in communicating with audiences outside of the local Association, such as the media, parent groups and/or the community in general. Projects would include, but not be limited to, newsletters, flyers, brochures, letters to the editor, op-ed articles, photography, or Internet homepages. Also, locals may enter total communications packages or media strategies. All entries must include an original or a copy of the material distributed along with an explanation of the project, its intent, any results it produced, and a list of members responsible for its production. Entries for periodicals (e.g. newsletters) must include at least two consecutive issues. Broadcast entries (audio and video) must be accompanied by a CD, DVD or flash drive. Internet entries may include a hard copy of the pages or an Internet address. (Broadcast entries should not exceed 8 minutes in length. Longer broadcasts should be edited to fit within the time limitation. Do not submit more than the required length.)

Special Communications Projects - This category recognizes examples of unusual communications efforts or large-scope projects such as total communications packages, media strategies or campaigns. All entries must include an original or a copy of the material distributed or a copy of the plan along with an explanation of the project, its intent, any results it produced, and a list of members responsible for its production. Entries for periodicals (e.g. newsletters) must include at least two consecutive issues. Broadcast entries (audio and video) must be accompanied by a CD, DVD or flash drive. (Broadcast entries should not exceed 8 minutes in length. Longer broadcasts should be edited to fit within the time limitation. Do not submit more than the required length.)

All entries should have been published, broadcast or otherwise produced and executed between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31 of the preceding calendar year.

SPECIAL AWARDS:

Special awards may be presented at the discretion of the Communications Committee and/or the OEA Board of Directors for any project that is deemed extraordinary.

NOMINATION PROCESS:

Nominations will be accepted from any current officer of an active local affiliate of the OEA. Nominations must be submitted in accordance with the timelines for OEA Awards. Entries should be mailed to:

Oklahoma Education Association
Golden Apple Awards Competition
P.O. Box 18485
Oklahoma City, OK 73154.

JUDGING:

The Golden Apple Awards will be judged by the OEA Communications Committee with the OEA Board of Directors reserving the right of final judgment of all awards. Entries will be judged on their own merits and not compared to other entries.

JUDGING CRITERIA:

- Does the entry meet the basic requirements of the Golden Apple Awards Program?
- How well does the entry meet basic standards of quality? (Is it well written, understandable, clear, concise, and/or logical in format? Spelling and grammar counts!)
- Does the entry meet the technical standards of the medium?
- Does the entry show imagination, innovation, uniqueness and/or creativity?
- How well does the entry promote the work of the local Association?

NEA FOUNDATION AWARDS FOR TEACHING EXCELLENCE

(NFIE AWARD)

PURPOSE OF AWARD

To recognize, reward and promote excellence in teaching and advocacy for the profession.

Both NEA and the NEA Foundation (NEAF) for the Improvement of Education (NFIE) believe that all students deserve a quality education and that teaching is the single most important component of quality education.

It is appropriate, therefore, that NEA and its foundation should recognize one of our members for teaching excellence.

ELIGIBILITY OF AWARD

All current members of an NEA local affiliate or bargaining unit are eligible, including teachers, education support professionals, and higher education faculty and staff.

The NEA Foundation—like NEA—values educators of all cultural backgrounds, ethnicities, heritages and races, gender and sexual orientations, abilities, and ideas.

In selecting and celebrating a national winner of this award each year, we honor teaching excellence, public education and our dedicated members.

The five areas of criteria for the award are:

- Professional Practice
- Advocacy for the Profession
- Community Engagement
- Leadership in Professional Development
- Attention to Diversity
