About the Oklahoma Education Association

- Founded October 19, 1889, the Oklahoma Education Association has long been considered the voice of education in Oklahoma.
- The OEA has nearly 40,000 members, comprised of public school teachers, coaches, counselors, librarians, and administrators; nurses, custodians, cafeteria workers, bus drivers, secretaries, and other support personnel; retired teachers; and education majors at Oklahoma colleges and universities.
- We are a founding member of the Oklahoma Education Coalition, an alliance of significant organizations in the Oklahoma’s education community.
- OEA is the state affiliate of the National Education Association.
- OEA is governed by a board of directors of educators and education support professionals who are elected by members. The current president is Alicia Priest and the vice president is Katherine Bishop. The executive director is David DuVall.
