Instructional and Curricular Strategies

Addressing Behavioral Challenges

Explore the latest research-based strategies for supporting positive student behaviors; includes current discipline regulations and how to utilize preventative strategies for students with and without IEPs.

Building Better Brains for Learning

Eric Jensen's research on how poverty and stress change the brain and how to structure pedagogy and curriculum to lessen these negative impacts.

Bullying Prevention

Stop bullying by investigating the psychological, social and educational impact of bullying behaviors, including cyber-bullying.

Classroom Management 101

Techniques to pique student involvement and reduce classroom management problems.

I Can Do It!*

This full-day, in-depth and highly collaborative workshop (newly revised in 2015) stresses the procedural and relational aspects of the smoothly-flowing classroom.

Recognizing Trauma in Our Students

Recognize the cognitive and emotional impacts of trauma on children and acquire strategies to help overcome them.

Teaching Resiliency

For Oklahoma students impacted by poverty and trauma, resilience is a key characteristic for success in school. Learn classroom practices to help build resiliency.

True Colors

A personality survey that provides insight into learning and leadership styles and helps you make the most of both student and adult group dynamics.

Building a Positive Climate and Community

Celebrate What's Right with the World!

National Geographic photographer Dewitt Jones' inspirational film helps us celebrate our lives with confidence and grace.

FISH!

From the Seattle Fish Market, the actions of Play, Be There, Make their Day and Choose your Attitude help show us that any workplace can be enjoyable and successful.

For the Love of It

Invigorate your life by actively loving what you do!

Your Summit Awaits

Adventurer Jaime Clarke challenges us to make our dreams our goal and show gratitude to change our perspectives and our lives.
